Nasha Shkola

Title I Parent Involvement Plan

FY `17

School Mission Statement emphasizing Parental Involvement:

Nasha Shkola is committed to providing quality education for every child in this school. To this end, we want to establish partnerships with parents and with the community. Everyone gains if school and home work together to promote high achievement by our children. Neither home nor school can do the job alone. Parents play an extremely important role as children's first teachers. Their support for their children and for the school is critical to their children's success at every step along the way.

Part I. School Expectations (Nasha Shkola is a Charter School)

School must establish the school's expectations for parent involvement. [Section 1118(a)(2), ESEA.]

Nasha Shkola agrees to implement the following requirements:

- Nasha Shkola will put into operation programs, activities and procedures for the involvement of parents in all of its schools with Title I programs. Those programs, activities and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.
- Nasha Shkola will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level parent involvement plan meets the Title I requirements, and includes, as a component, a school-parent compact.
- Nasha Shkola will incorporate this school-wide parent involvement plan into its school plan.
- In carrying out the Title I parent involvement requirements, to the extent practicable, Nasha Shkola will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with children with limited English proficiency, parents with children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

- If the Nasha Shkola plan for Title I is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit any parent comments with the plan when it submits the plan to Minnesota Department of Education.

In addition:

NS will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its parent involvement policy/procedures:

- Parents upon being approached with information about enrolling their children at NS will be informed of the expectation that they must be involved in their children's learning.

Part IV. Discretionary School Parental Involvement Plan Components

The Nasha Shkola Parent Involvement Plan may include additional paragraphs listing and describing other discretionary activities that the school, in consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involvement in the school and school system to support their children's academic achievement, such as the following activities: (Please check those discretionary activities that the parents and school choose to participate in during this fiscal year.)

- Involve parents in the development of training for teachers, Directors and other educators to improve the effectiveness of that training.
- Provide necessary literacy training for parents from Title I, Part A funds, if the school has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for that training.

X Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions.

- Train parents to enhance the involvement of other parents.
- In order to maximize parental involvement and participation in their children's education, arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend those conferences at school.

X Adopt and implement model approaches to improving parental involvement.

- Establish a school parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in Title I, Part A programs.

X Develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses, including faith-based organizations, in parental involvement activities.

- Provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under section 1118 as parents may request

X One of the roles that the Title I teacher plays is to help close the information gap as it arises between NS staff and parents. The Title I teacher will provide resources and training for parents so they feel confident in requesting information, resources, and support.

Part V. Accessibility

In carrying out the parental involvement requirements of this part Nasha Shkola, to the extent practicable, shall provide full opportunities for the participation of parents of children with limited English proficiency, parents of children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents can understand.
